

Timișoara is the municipality of residence of Timiș County, Banat, Romania. It is located in western Romania, close to the borders with Hungary and Serbia, on the banks of the river Bega. The name of the locality comes from that of the Timiș River, combined with the Hungarian noun vár, “fortress”, meaning the Timiș Fortress.

